RUNNING SORES

Little Girl's Obstinate Case of Eczema - Instantaneous Relief By Cuticura - Little Boy's Hands and Arms Also Were a Mass of Torturing Sores - Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES A HOUSEHOLD STANDBY"

'In reply to your letter I write you my experience, and you are privileged to use it as you see fit. Last year, after having my little girl treated by a very prominent physician for an obstinate case of eczema, I resorted to the Cuticura Remedies, and was so well pleased with the almost instantaneous relief afforded that we discarded the physician's prescription and relied entirely on the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. When we commenced with the Cuticura Remedies her feet and limbs were covered with running sores. In about six weeks we had her completely well, and there has been no recurrency of the trouble.

"In July of this year a little boy in our family poisoned his hands and arms with poison cak, and in twenty-four hours his hands and arms were a mass of torturing sores. We used only the Cuticura Remedies, washing his hands and arms with the Cuticura Soap, and anointed them with the Cuticura Soap and anointed them with the Cuticura Remedies are a valuable household standby, living as we do twelve miles from a doctor, and where it costs from twenty to twenty-five dollars to come up on the mountain. Respectfully, Mrs. Lizzie Vincent Thomas, Fairmount, Walden's Ridge, Tenn., Oct. 13, 1995."

A Mother-in-Law Joke. King Alfonso appreciates English humor. The hoary jokes of all ages-jokes early Victorian, jokes mediaeval, jokes archaic, jokes that flourished in the days of William the Conqueror, jokes of the Stone Age and the Glacial Period, jokes that smelt of wood and michales they were all juried at the mistletoe—they were all luried at the young king on his recent visit to Eng-land and his laugh rang loudest. It was at a Christy Minstrel entertainment given by the officers of the Osborne Convalescent Home near Cowe. But the oke of all jokes was the mother-in-law oke and even Princess Henry-a youth ful-looking prospective mother-in-law-joined in the polite laughter that greeted this hoary veteran. THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thor

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many half vigors may look alse and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpleide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people every-where are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure
